

Does the type of gas I use make a difference as to what type of logs I should use?

With vented gas logs it is not a problem to use either natural gas or LP (liquid propane). We highly recommend the use of natural gas for vented logs. LP burns dirty and it will cause your logs to become covered in soot. Vented logs will burn more gas as well. With natural gas you do not have to refill tanks.